ORIENTATION

1-1. Gender Statement. All references to the male gender throughout this document apply to both sexes unless otherwise indicated.

1-2. Applicability. This guide applies to all candidates assigned to or attached to Reserve Component Officer Candidate School.

1-3. Mission. Train selected personnel in the fundamentals of leadership and basic military skills; instill the professional and physical fitness ethic; evaluate leadership potential; and commission those who qualify as second lieutenants in the Total Force.

1-4. Course Overview.

a. General: Reserve Component OCS is a 12- to 15-month (traditional program) or 8-week (accelerated program) Leaders' Course of Instruction, taught in a high-stress environment, during which the cadre develop and evaluate the performance of the candidates as it relates to their potential for commissioning as second lieutenants in the Total Force.

b. Program of Instruction (POI): United States Army Infantry School (USAIS) prepares, publishes, and distributes the OCS Course Management Plan (CMP) and Program of Instruction (POI). The course of instruction will not exceed 16 months and is presented in three phases. The OCS Battalion or Company Commander directs phase advancement, dependent on class performance.

(1) Phase 0. Although not a formal POI phase, traditional OCS programs typically conduct a three-IDT period Phase 0 program. This phase consists of instruction in basic soldier skills, drill and ceremony, physical training, and administrative preparation. The goal is to prepare prospective candidates to succeed in OCS.

(2) Phase I. Consists of one 15-day annual training period. Training focuses on the individual, squad and platoon levels. Candidates receive military subject, land navigation, and leadership training under high stress conditions. Candidates in Phase I maintains a climate of strict discipline as the cadre show the candidates OCS standards and then expect the candidates to meet these standards. Candidates train under extremely demanding mental and physical conditions.

(3) Phase II. In the traditional program, Phase II occurs during IDT weekends, between the first and second annual training periods; in the Accelerated Program, Phase II is a four week ADT period. Phase II is characterized by increased TAC officer teaching and a slight reduction in stress producing situations. Training focuses on the individual, squad and platoon levels. During this phase, candidates continue to perfect the skills learned in the basic phase and strive for tactical and small unit leadership skills and confidence. Candidates will assume additional responsibilities designed to refine their leadership skills through additional challenges of maintaining a completely functional student chain of command.

(4) Phase III. Consists of one 15-day annual training period. Training occurs at individual, squad, and platoon level; with the focus on tactical operations and field leadership. Officer candidates focus on polishing leadership skills. The TAC officer role is that of a teacher, mentor and role model. This phase is the final refining of the candidate done by the cadre to ultimately prepare the candidate for the officer environment.

1-5. Course Standards.

a. The standards required of an Officer Candidate will be of the highest order. Character and integrity must be an inspiration to others and conduct at all times must be above reproach. Personal appearance, military bearing and military courtesy will be of the highest standard at all times.

b. Officer Candidates must meet the following standards necessary for graduation from OCS.

(1) ACADEMICS. Pass all examinations. (Chapter 8, Training)

(2) LEADERSHIP. Serve in various command positions during all phases of training and achieve an overall satisfactory leadership rating. (Chapter 6, Leadership Ratings and Reports)

(3) MORAL CHARACTER. Each Officer Candidate must have high moral character considered necessary for a commissioned officer. (Chapter 4, Honor Code)

(4) MEDICAL. Each Officer Candidate must pass a physical examination as prescribed for appointment as an officer in AR 40-501.

Each Officer Candidate must score a minimum of 60 points on each event of the Army Physical Fitness Test (APFT) with a minimum total score of 180 points, IAW NGR 600-100 and FM 21-20. A large portion of the OCS environment is physical conditioning and requires stamina. Each Officer Candidate must participate in scheduled physical training. Candidates must complete all foot marches within prescribed standards. During Phase I candidate will complete a 5 mile foot march. During Phase II candidates must complete a 7 and 10 mile foot march. Candidates who fail to meet the standard will be allowed one retest. (Chapter 5, Relief, Recycle, removal and Resignation)

(6) WEIGHT STANDARDS. All Officer Candidates must meet the weight standards as published in AR 600-9. (Chapter 5, Relief, Recycle, removal and Resignation)

(7) ATTENDANCE. Each Officer Candidate is expected to attend ALL training periods. The loss of 12 hours of training is grounds for dismissal. (Chapter 5, Relief, Recycle, removal and Resignation).

1-6. Requirements for Graduation with Honors.

a. All candidates are encouraged to strive for excellence. The earning of a student honor by a candidate is very prestigious and is indicative of the attainment of excellence throughout the course. The criteria for student honors focus on the "whole person" concept and requires the candidate to have excelled in physical fitness, academics and leadership. To be eligible for student honors, candidates must meet all graduation requirements.

b. The following candidates are not eligible for honors:

(1) Recycled candidates, with the exception of medical recycles who are in good standing at the time of recycle, are not eligible for student honors or other recognition.

(2) Candidates who must re-test on any academic exam.

1-8. Definitions

a. OFFICER CANDIDATE (OC). An Officer Candidate is a selected applicant undergoing intensive military training and evaluation to qualify as an officer in the Army National Guard or the US Army Reserve. The standards required to qualify any candidate as an officer regardless of anticipated branch assignment are those prescribed for an Infantry Second Lieutenant. Students enrolled in OCS will be referred to as "Officer Candidate".

b. TAC OFFICER. A TAC Officer is a selected officer whose primary function is to TEACH, ASSESS and COUNSEL (TAC) those candidates assigned to him/her in order to maximize the development of their leadership ability. All TAC officers, regardless of rank or position, are selected based on knowledge, experience, dedication and the ability to foster and evaluate leadership performance and potential. Candidates may not fully understand the leadership development process until they have gained the perspective of time and experience. Some of the methods TAC Officers use in the performance of their duties are:

1. Observation
2. On-the-spot correction
3. Company/Platoon address
4. Formal instruction
5. Reprimand
6. Informal individual performance counseling
7. Formal individual performance counseling
8. Written evaluation reports
9. Written leadership evaluations
10. Peer reports

c. TAC NCO. The TAC NCO is generally assigned at the platoon level. A TAC NCO is a selected NCO whose primary function is to TEACH, ASSESS and COUNSEL (TAC) those candidates assigned to him/her in order to maximize the development of their leadership ability. The NCO is an essential component in the command structure of the Army. In the OCS environment, the TAC NCO works directly with the TAC Officer and in his/her absence takes charge of the platoon. The TAC NCO assists in planning and executing platoon missions and trains the platoon in individual and collective tasks. The methods TAC NCOs use in the performance of their duties are the same listed above for the TAC Officer.

d. SENIOR TAC OFFICER. The senior TAC Officer will monitor and supervise leadership training of the candidates and still have the overall responsibility for leadership development and administrative affairs.

Chapter 2

POLICIES

2-1. General. The policies established at OCS provide uniformity and information for evaluating the candidate's ability to follow instructions, pay attention to detail and demonstrate leadership. The policies prescribed require strict compliance. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary action, recycle or relief.

2-2. Fraternalization.

a. Relationships between candidates and cadre which cause the actual or perceived appearance of preferential treatment or partiality are prejudicial to good order, discipline and unit morale. Candidates and cadre are not authorized to form such relationships.

b. Fraternalization includes, but is not limited to sexual relationship with candidates and cadre, public display of affection, to include close dancing, handholding, touching, kissing or other similar contact.

c. Fraternalization between candidates is unacceptable; it has the potential to undermine unit esprit and cause unnecessary tension within the class. Candidates will refrain from all actions that are, or could be perceived as, fraternization.

2-3. Appearance.

a. An Officer Candidates appearance makes a statement about the individual's personal organization, pride and attention to detail. Officer Candidates will maintain the highest standards of appearance and always set a positive example. Male Officer Candidates are to be clean-shaven; mustaches and sideburns are not authorized.

(2) Female Candidates: Time allowed for grooming is very limited at OCS. Females should arrive with a hairstyle that conforms to AR 670-1 even during physical training. Hairstyles will not interfere with the proper wearing of military headgear or protective masks. Hair holding ornaments (such as but not limited to, barrettes, pins, clips, bands) if used, must be unadorned and plain and must be transparent or similar in color to the hair, and will be inconspicuously placed. #### 2-4. Candidate Preparation

a. Drill and Ceremonies. Candidates must study and become thoroughly familiar with FM 3-21.5 (Drill and Ceremonies). One reading of the FM 3-21.5 will not suffice. A sound, thorough knowledge of Drill and Ceremonies will be of great value to the Officer Candidate. * Specific attention should be paid to chapters 2 through 7 *

b. Physical Fitness. The intent of the physical fitness training program at OCS is to educate each OC on the basics of individual and unit physical fitness and improve the physical fitness of each candidate. It emphasizes running, tactical road marching, endurance, and upper body strength. As future leaders, Officer Candidates are expected to wholeheartedly embrace and exemplify the Army concept of Total Fitness as set forth in FM 21-20 and related publications. Physical fitness has a direct impact on combat readiness. With this in mind, the following must be accomplished prior to Phase I:

In observance of that fact, Officer Candidates will maintain the highest possible standard of appearance through proper wear and care of the appropriate uniform. In addition to this, all Officer Candidates will be uniformly dressed for whatever task or situation that they are in.

(1) It is the Officer Candidate's responsibility to make sure that he has in his possession all authorized and required items. Diligence and persistence are often necessary. a. Entering Dining Facility. Once the Company has been formed in preparation for entering the dining facility, the CO will call the XO to the front of the company by using the command: "XO, front and center."

(1) The XO will then report to the CO, the CO will instruct the XO to "Read the Menu". The XO will then conduct an about face, give the company the command "Stand at ease" and read the menu, accentuating "AND BUTTER" as the last item on the menu. At this point, the company will come to the position of attention and in unison, say "Yum, Yum!" and then immediately return to the position of "stand at ease". The XO will then call the company back to attention and conduct an about face where the CO will instruct him to return to his position in the company formation.

(2) The CO will then have the meal blessed by calling the Chaplain to the front of the formation by using the command: "Chaplain, Front and Center." The designated chaplain will leave his position in the company formation and report to the CO. The CO will instruct the chaplain to "Bless the Meal". The chaplain will then perform an about face, give the command, "Remove Headgear." The chaplain will then bless the meal. Upon completion of the blessing (AMEN), the company will automatically replace their headgear, the chaplain will perform an about face where the CO will instruct him to return to his position in the company formation. (NOTE: When each individual Officer Candidate replaces their headgear, they will place the Kevlar chinstrap on the back of the neck so that the chinstrap is not visible from the front.)

(3) After the chaplain has been dismissed, the CO will give the command, "Ground Headgear." Each Officer Candidate, on the preparatory command, "Ground", will place both hands on the side of the Kevlar. On the command of execution, "Headgear", each Officer Candidate will remove his Kevlar and place it centered in front of his feet on the ground. The CO will then give the directive to, "Ground your equipment". Each Officer Candidate will then ground his/her individual map case, LBE, rucksack and/or manuals in an expeditious manner. The CO will then ask the TAC, "Sir/Ma'am, Officer Candidate *name*, what are the numbers?" The TAC will respond with three numbers that will instruct the company on how many sit-ups, pull-ups, and push-ups the company will perform during the circuit exercises. The CO will then instruct the Platoon Leaders on these numbers and the order of chow. The CO will then turn the company over to the Platoon Leaders by using the command "Platoon Leaders take charge of your platoon and move them into the dining facility."

b. Movement to the DFAC. Officer Candidates will move by company to the DFAC. Kevlar, weapons and equipment will be grounded before entering the DFAC and a guard posted.

c. Standing in line. The line into the DFAC will begin at the front door. Candidates will maintain a position of Parade Rest at all times, coming to the position of attention to move forward in the line.

d. Door guard. A door guard will be posted at the entrance of the DFAC. The door guard will permit students to enter the DFAC at the direction of the DFAC personnel. The command "Next *number* candidates into the dining facility." will be used.

e. VIP guard. A guard to monitor the arrival and departure of VIPs within the DFAC will be posted. Upon identifying a VIP (Commandant, Senior Officer, etc.) senior in rank to all currently in the DFAC, the VIP guard will command, "At Ease!" All activity in the DFAC will cease until the command of "Carry On" is given.

f. Seating guard. A seating guard will be posted within the dining area of the DFAC. As an Officer Candidate leaves the serving line, the seating guard will direct him to the next available seat. The dining room will fill from the seats furthestmost from the serving line to those nearest. The seating guard is responsible for knowing which seats are reserved for VIPs.

g. Movement within the DFAC. Upon entering the DFAC, Officer Candidates will assume and maintain a modified position of attention and proceed as directed. Officer Candidates will move to the seat indicated by the seating guard, be seated, and consume their meal as expeditiously as possible. Officer Candidates will confine the boundary of their vision to their tray. Candidates will remain silent unless addressed by a member of the cadre. Candidates may be allowed to speak quietly upon reaching Senior Status. Upon completing the meal, candidates will promptly exit the DFAC.

3-8. Sick Call. The candidate will inform his/her chain that they are going to sick call. Sick Call is at 0500 unless otherwise stated. Candidates will report with their ID Card and will fill out the necessary paperwork upon arrival.

3-9. Classroom Procedures.

a. Officer Candidates will enter the classroom in a single file, fill the seats from front to rear, and remain standing at the position of attention. The Officer Candidate in charge will command "Uncover!" prior to reporting the class ready for instruction. Upon the command, "uncover!" all Officer Candidates will remove their headgear and place them on the table per the unit SOP. The class leader will then approach the instructor, render a hand salute and report, "Sir/Ma'am, Officer Candidate *name*, Company *A*B...*, *First or Second...* Platoon, # assigned, # present, Prepared for instruction!" When the salute has been returned, the class leader will face about, relay any specific instructions/information and issue the directive "Ground Your Equipment". After the LBE has been hung on the backs of the chairs, the class leader will issue the command, "Take Seats!" At which point the class will exclaim, "It Shall Be Done!", remove their remaining equipment and be seated.

b. To ask a question the Officer Candidate will raise his hand. When recognized by the instructor the OC will rise to the position of attention, state "Sir/Ma'am/Sergeant/Sergeant Major, Officer Candidate *name*", come to the position of parade rest and ask his question. Candidates will speak loud enough for all to hear the question or comment. Candidates will respond in the same manner when called upon by an instructor.

c. If an Officer Candidate is feeling sleepy, he will take his note taking material and move to the rear of the classroom in a courteous manner where he will assume the position of parade rest. When alert, he will return to his seat.

d. Officer Candidates will not go to the latrine or for water during class unless the instructor has granted permission.

c. When the instructor completes the period of instruction he will call, "Class Leader!", or "Company Commander". The class leader will rise and command the class to "Class Attention!" prior to reporting to the instructor at the front of the classroom. The class leader will proceed to the front of the classroom, halt two steps from the instructor, salute and state "Sir/Ma'am/Sergeant/Sergeant Major, Officer Candidate *name*, Reports as ordered!" The instructor will return the salute and issue any necessary instructions. The class leader will take one step to the rear and again salute the instructor. When the salute has been returned, the class leader will face about and command, "Secure your gear!" "Face the aisle!" "From front to rear, left to right, March out!" The Student Company Commander is the Class Leader when training at company level.

3-10. Formations.

a. Scheduled formations are listed on the training schedule and/or drill period operations order. The cadre chain of command may call other formations. Candidates are considered late to formation if they are not standing in their platoon when the command "Fall-in" is given. Candidates will not miss formation unless excused by their TAC.

b. The student chain of command is responsible for accountability of the company.

c. Candidates are responsible for knowing the time of the next scheduled formation prior to departing the training site on an IDT weekend.

3-11. Miscellaneous Rules.

a. All areas not specifically authorized by OCS cadre are off limits to Officer Candidates.

b. Officer Candidates will not swear, cuss, or use abusive language at anytime.

c. Vending areas and telephones are off limits unless otherwise directed by the TAC Staff.

d. Officer Candidates will double-time at all times except:

(1) When otherwise directed.

- (2) Immediately after meals.
- (3) When carrying large or unwieldy objects.
- (4) When on profile.
- (5) Upon reaching Senior Status, time permitting.

e. Officer Candidates may wear a wedding ring on the left hand and a wristwatch. No other jewelry is authorized to include earrings and other body rings. Candidates will make certain all alarms and chimes on watches are "OFF" prior to the start of the day's activities.

3-12. Accountability and Reporting.

a. The student chain of command is responsible for accounting for all students assigned to their company/platoon. Accountability and reporting procedures are IAW FM 3-21.5

3-13. Mail.

a. Mail will be collected daily by the TAC 1SG in a location to be designated by the 1SG. Mail will be distributed at the completion of the training day. Mail will never be withheld as a form of punishment.

b. Packages. All candidates receiving packages will notify their TAC. Candidates cannot accept "care packages" containing contraband or perishable items until authorized by the Company Commander. All packages are subject to inspection upon receipt.

Chapter 4

HONOR CODE

4-1. General.

a. Honor.

(1) Honor may be defined as that quality in a person that shows them to be truthful and fair in word and deed, both to themselves and to others. It also implies loyalty, courage and devotion to duty.

(2) A commissioned officer must possess honor as an integral portion of his character in order to meet the demands placed upon him as a leader. In the profession of arms, the welfare and indeed the very lives of so many, hinge on the honor and integrity of the few who lead. You will be among those few. In peacetime, it is imperative that you maintain your high standards of honor so that in combat, the trust placed in you will not be misplaced.

(3) The honor code takes a simplistic approach to govern the behavior of Officer Candidates in a complex environment. The honor code simply holds the Officer Candidate to conduct that our society deems acceptable and honorable; the conduct primarily learned at home, school and church. The honor code to be effective must be monitored and sanctioned by the Officer Candidates.

b. Webster's Definition of Honor. "...a sense of what is right, just and true, scorning meanness." Honor, like courage, is a word, which has resisted thorough definition, though such has been attempted by the philosophers of the ancient world and perhaps by aspiring officers caught in situations of compromise. Honor encompasses all of the acts, thoughts and aspirations of an individual. Its presence or absence in the personal make-up of an individual determines how he lives, what he derives from life and how he is thought of by others.

c. A leader must have the respect of those persons given into his charge. This respect is based upon his conduct, his personal courage and his sense of honor. Honor is, therefore, a necessary and essential part of every officer. He is bound by his word, his devotion to Duty, Honor, Country and the oath of his commission. In times of war and peace, his word will invariably be given in times of extreme tension, stress and danger. His subordinates depend on this word for their physical survival and his superior depends on it in shaping the plans of battle. Honor among soldiers, invariably, makes the difference between life and death.

4-2. Provisions of the Honor Code. The honor code is simple: An Officer Candidate will not lie, cheat, or steal, nor tolerate those who do.

a. The Honor Code is a rule of personal integrity, which requires each student to be absolutely and unflinchingly honest in all matters. The code at Officer Candidate School is as follows: "Belief in and application of the principles of the Honor Code will set the standard for and influence everything you do! Never fear the truth and never compromise honor or truth for expediency."

b. The element most important to the success of the Honor Code is the belief in that code by every person. That belief, together with an appreciation for the importance of honor, will foster the assurance that you can put complete trust in your comrades. Honor and trust are the cohesive agents, which transform a group into a unit.

c. The Honor Code is based on the principle that integrity is an essential attribute for all officers. At OCS, the Honor Code is emphasized and candidates must understand its scope and intent. Each candidate must employ it in everything they do.

(1) Lying. Candidates violate the honor code by lying if they make an oral or written statement or gesture of communication in the presence of, or to, another, intending to deceive or mislead. Quibbling is creation of false impressions through evasive wording, the omission of relevant facts, or telling a partial truth, and is a form of lying.

(2) Cheating. Candidates violate the honor code by cheating if they willingly take information, which does not belong to them, or present material that is not an example of their own work, to gain an advantage.

(3) Stealing. Candidates violate the honor code by stealing if they wrongfully take, obtain, or withhold, by any means, from the possession of the owner (or any other person), any money, personal property or article of value of any kind, with the intent to deprive or defraud another person of the use or benefit of the property. Candidates are considered to be stealing when they take, obtain, or withhold any item without the expressed permission or knowledge of the owner.

(4) Toleration. Candidates violate the honor code by toleration if they fail to report an unresolved incident with honor implications to the proper authority within a reasonable time period. Proper authority will usually be the Platoon TAC or an honor council representative; however, an incident could also be reported to an instructor or member of the support staff. A reasonable length of time is the time it takes to confront the suspected violator and determine whether the incident was a misunderstanding or actually a violation of the honor code.

d. There is a distinct difference between an honor violation and a disciplinary violation. Although honor and discipline are in many ways complimentary, it is essential that the Officer Candidate completely understand the difference. To be guilty of an Honor Code Violation, you must have violated one of the four provisions of the Honor Code. A disciplinary violation involves a breach of policy or regulations.

4-3. The Honor Council.

a. The honor council investigates and makes recommendations to the OCS Battalion Commander with regard to any alleged or actual violations of the honor code. The honor council consists of four elements: the Senior TAC Officer, at a minimum of two Officer Candidates (usually the president and vice president), at least two other cadre or staff members and a recorder.

b. Senior TAC Officer. The duties of the Senior TAC will include providing direction and advice to the honor council. The Senior TAC will not vote unless there is a tie among the other council members. He will notify the OCS Battalion Commander of the results of all hearing and recommend retention or relief of the candidate(s) involved.

c. Investigations. A preliminary investigation of alleged violations is conducted by the SR TAC during Phase I, Phase II and Phase III. Every fact of the alleged violation is explored. Written statements must be obtained from the principle witnesses.

(1). An example of an investigation is as follows. OC Doe is seen apparently cheating during an exam. The instructor informs the Senior TAC that this occurs. The Senior TAC conducts the investigation, by speaking with the individual, and other classmates. If there is sufficient evidence, the Senior TAC then convenes an Honor Council.

(2) Prior to the hearing, the SR TAC council informs the alleged violator of the following:

- a. He is bound by the honor code to tell the truth.
- b. The charges relating to the violation and the identity of the accuser.
- c. He may bring in any evidence, or call on any witness, on his behalf.
- d. He may make an oral or written statement.
- e. He has the right to be represented by another candidate.

d. Conduct of the Hearing. Normally, the hearing is conducted within 24 hours. The Senior TAC will determine if all procedural items have been accomplished and the accused is prepared to plead their case. The following are the rules and procedures for the hearing:

(1) The SR TAC presents the case to the committee. There must be at least three committee members present at the hearing.

(2) The violator and accuser will not be present in the hearing at the same time.

(3) The Senior TAC is present throughout the entire hearing. Alleged violators are considered not guilty until proven otherwise. A majority of votes cast in secret ballot, will be required to find a candidate guilty of an honor code violation.

(4). Staff or Candidates who have been part of the investigation or who are biased in any way will not sit on the council and the Senior TAC will select another member.

(5) A candidate found guilty of an honor code violation is recommended by the council for dismissal from the OCS program. The verdict and recommendation of an Honor Board will be forwarded to the OCS Battalion Commander. If the OC is found not guilty, the verdict is forwarded through the OCS Battalion Commander as part of the minutes of the meeting. The OCS Battalion Commander will make final decision for candidate disposition after looking at the facts and the Honor Councils recommendation.

A VIOLATION OF THE HONOR CODE IS CAUSE FOR DISMISSAL!

Chapter 5

OFFICER CANDIDATE RELIEF, RECYCLE, REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION

5-1. Purpose: This chapter prescribes the policies and procedures for the recycle or relief of an officer candidate in the OCS program and provisions for the removal of officer candidates from training.

5-2. Scope: These policies and procedures apply to all officer candidates in the ARNG OCS program during all phases of training, both traditional and accelerated.

5-3. Definitions: The ARNG OCS program provides three official remedies for soldiers who do not meet course requirements, require disciplinary action, or cannot successfully continue OCS training. Commanders at all levels are not restricted to these remedies and may provide remedies as the situation dictates with the means available; however, these remedies are provided. Candidates relieved, removed/dismissed and resignations from the OCS program will be administratively reduced to the rank held prior to enrollment in OCS within one month. Date of Rank (DOR) will be the DOR held prior to enrollment to OCS.

a. Relief: Relief is the disenrollment of an officer candidate from the ARNG OCS program. When an officer candidate is relieved, he/she is returned to his/her State/unit of assignment.

b. Recycle: Recycle occurs when an officer candidate is not allowed to continue training in the current phase of the OCS program. The officer candidate is removed from the current phase and returns to the home state/unit. The home state is responsible for determining if the candidate is to be recycled. If the candidate is recycled, he/she must start at the beginning of the phase in which they were removed. If the candidate is not recycled, he/she will be administratively reduced IAW the provisions specified in paragraph 5-3 above.

c. Removal. Removal occurs when a soldier is removed from training and not allowed to continue training with the current OCS class. Once removed, the soldier is returned to his/her home state OCS program to determine if the candidate is going to be recycled or relieved.

d. Resignation. Resignation occurs when an officer candidate resolves to leave OCS training, submits this request in writing, and is granted this request by the commander.

5-4. Approval Authority.

a. The first O5 in the candidate's chain of command (e.g. OCS battalion commanders at accelerated OCS and Phase I; GS and OCS battalion/RTI commanders at Phase II, accelerated and traditional; and regimental / battalion commanders at Phase III) has the authority to remove soldiers from the phase of training for which they supervise if the soldier fails to meet phase requirements. Moreover, the first O5 in a candidate's chain of command may remove soldiers from the phase of training for which they supervise for any of the reasons for recycle or relief listed in this chapter, or for any reason they deem vital to ensure good order and discipline. The decision to recycle the soldier in OCS or to relieve the soldier is made by the home state OCS or GS battalion/RTI commander when the soldier returns to the home state after being removed from training. For the candidate's appeals process reference Paragraph 5-9.

b. The authority to relieve or recycle a soldier in the ARNG OCS program resides in the soldier's home state only. Soldiers may only be relieved from or recycled in the OCS program by the authority of the first O5 in the candidate's chain of command (OCS battalion commander or GS battalion/RTI commander) in the officer candidate's home state. If the decision to relieve a candidate is made, the commander must determine if the soldier is to be relieved with prejudice or without prejudice.

(1) Relief without prejudice. Occurs when in the opinion of the approval authority (described in Paragraph 5-4, B. above), the difficulties experienced by an officer candidate arise from circumstances that are of a temporary nature which preclude successful completion of the current course of instruction. This type of relief allows the soldier the option of reapplying for a future class enrollment.

(2) Relief with prejudice. Occurs when in the opinion of the approval authority (described in Paragraph 5-4, B. above), the soldier should be removed from the ARNG OCS program without the option to reapply for a future class enrollment. This is normally reserved for serious, involuntary reasons for relief.

5-5. Removing Soldiers from POI Training. The only person authorized to remove an officer candidate from training is the approval authority (described in Paragraph 5-4, A. above). Officer candidates continue to attend all POI training until final disposition on removal, recycle, or relief is determined. The approval authority may remove officer candidates from POI training before final disposition if they determine that the officer candidate's presence constitutes a significant training distracter for other candidates or constitutes a safety hazard to other candidates or cadre. However, if an OC appeals and appeal is favored to the OC and OC is allowed in the OCS program, the responsible OCS commander must provide OC with all missed/make-up training.

5-6.Recommendations/Procedures for Removal, Recycle or Relief.

a. Responsibilities.

(1) Cadre. The candidate must first be counseled in writing (DA Form 4856E) that he/she is in jeopardy of being removed, recycled, or relieved. The counseling must contain the areas in which the candidate must improve, or actions that the candidate must discontinue in order to maintain enrollment in the current class, along with a specified amount of time they have to complete the corrective action. If the candidate does not improve or does not discontinue actions as directed, the TAC must counsel the candidate a second time in writing (DA Form 4856E) recommending him/her for removal, recycle, or relief. At this second counseling session, the TAC informs the candidate of their right to present written evidence on their behalf. This evidence is included in the candidate's record along with counseling forms concerning the recycle or relief. The TAC then presents the OCS company commander with complete documentation and evidence concerning all efforts made on the candidate's behalf.

(2) Company Commander. The company commander reviews the training packet, interviews the candidate, and concurs or non-concurs with the recommendation. Record of interview will be in writing (using DA Form 4856E). If the OCS company commander decides that the candidate's actions do not warrant removal, recycle, or relief, the documents are maintained in the candidate record and the candidate continues in the ARNG OCS training program. If the OCS company commander concurs with the recommendation, the packet is forwarded to the OCS battalion commander, the GS battalion/RTI commander, or the regimental / battalion commander, as appropriate.

(3) Commander (OCS battalion, GS battalion or regimental). The commander reviews the packet along with the candidate's records, receives input from the candidate's chain of command, and interviews the candidate. The commander can concur or non-concur with the recommendation or take other action as appropriate. The Commander will record his/her recommendation in Part IV of the Company Commander's DA Form 4856E. If the commander decides that removal, recycle, or relief is appropriate. The OC is advised of his/her right to appeal. The OC has 24 hours to provide a written appeal. If OC appeals, he/she will remain in the course until final disposition of appeal.

b. Dismissal for misconduct, lack of motivation, academic deficiency or failure to maintain physical fitness or height and weight standards will be recorded on the OCs End of Course Summary, if applicable, in accordance with the provisions of this CMP. In accordance with AR 600-8-2, soldiers disenrolled for disciplinary reasons may be flagged. Soldiers disenrolled for misconduct may be barred from reenlistment in accordance with AR 601-280, AR 140-111 and NGR 600-100.

c. Disenrollment for illness, injury, compassionate transfer or other reasons beyond the control of the individual will be made without prejudice. The O5 commander will prepare a DD Form 785 (Record of Disenrollment for Officer Candidate – Type Training) to the OC's State OCS company/RTI commander stating the reason for termination and that the student will be eligible to re-enroll as soon as conditions that led to disenrollment no longer exist.

d. The Federal UCMJ and/or UCMJ from one State do not apply to ARNG soldiers under Title 32, U.S. Code from another State. Accordingly school commanders will forward an ARNG soldier's case to Soldier's respective State Adjutant General for appropriate disposition.

e. School commanders will ensure student records are complete and audit trails are maintained for all personnel actions.

f. Final Disposition. The candidate packet and recommendation for recycle or relief is then forwarded to the candidate's home state OCS or GS battalion/RTI commander for disposition.

g. Records. Records are maintained on file at the home state IAW TR 350-18 on all officer candidates who are relieved. These records must include a completed "End of Course Summary". Recycled candidate's records are maintained on file until the candidate resumes training at the start of the phase which previously dropped. The candidate record then again becomes the candidate's active record. All documents concerning the recycle are maintained in the candidate's record.

h. Reasons for Recycle. The OCS Battalion or GS Battalion Commander determines the grounds for recycle. They may include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) Compassionate or hardship reasons. Health, welfare or financial problems of immediate family members that substantially interferes with successful continuation in the course or causes candidates to miss 12 or more hours of scheduled training.

(2) Disqualifying physical conditions (medical). Inability to complete the course because of poor health or missing training through hospitalization, appointments or duty limitations directed by a medical officer. Physical profiles are administered to prevent soldiers from exercising personal zeal beyond their physical limitations. The Company Commander considers a possible recycle for profiles that:

a. Cause a candidate to limit participation in physical activities, routine duty, or miss excessive amount of scheduled physical training periods.

b. Require confinement to quarters for a contagious sickness or illness causing the OC to miss 12 or more hours of scheduled training.

c. Prevent a candidate from participating in mandatory course requirements or miss a portion of critical training. Examples are: Leaders' Reaction Course, APFT, FLX I, II, III, road marches, physical training runs, and so forth.

(3) Disciplinary reasons. Failure to cooperate in routine requirements or adhere to course standards of obedience. Candidates who receive repeated disciplinary actions are recommended for recycle or relief. Candidates committing any offense punishable by applicable laws and / or military regulations are considered for relief under this provision.

(4) Failed leadership evaluations. Candidates who fail to display improvement in leadership, and who continue to receive sub par leadership evaluations must be considered for relief or recycle. OCS Company Commanders who do not feel that an officer candidate possesses the leadership skills, attitudes, and knowledge to become a successful second lieutenant must prevent the candidate from graduating from Phase II and proceeding to Phase III, and must consider the candidate for recycle or relief.

(5) Failure to progress. Defines a candidate who shows marginal progress in performance, physical fitness, leadership evaluations, demonstrated motivation, attitude, aptitude, and conduct when compared to candidate's peers.

(6) Failure to meet graduation requirements.

i. Reasons for Relief. The OCS Battalion or GS Battalion Commander determines the grounds for relief. They may include, but are not limited to the following.

(1) Honor Code violations. A candidate will not lie, cheat, steal, nor tolerate those who do. A violation of this code may result in a recommendation for relief. See ARNG OCS TAC Guide and ARNG OCS OC Guide for detailed information concerning the honor code.

(2) Academic failure. Academic failure is defined as a failure to attain 70% on any academic evaluations or the scheduled retest.

(3) Failure to progress. This is a candidate who fails to show progress in performance, physical fitness, subjective evaluations, motivation, attitude, aptitude, or conduct. Such progress is less than acceptable and is detrimental to the interest of the other students in the class.

(4) Disciplinary reasons. Failure to cooperate in routine requirements or adhere to course standards of obedience. Candidates who receive repeated disciplinary actions are recommended for recycle or relief. Candidates committing any offense punishable under applicable laws and / or military regulations are considered for relief under this provision.

(5) Failed leadership evaluations. Candidates who fail to display improvement in leadership, and who continue to receive sub par leadership evaluations must be considered for relief or recycle. OCS Company Commanders who do not feel that an officer candidate possesses the leadership skills, attitudes and knowledge to become a successful second lieutenant must prevent the candidate from graduating from Phase II and proceeding to Phase III, and must consider the candidate for recycle or relief.

(6) Lack of adaptability. A candidate who fails to adapt to the stringent environmental conditions of discipline, soldierly habits, teamwork, and mental and physical stress can be considered for relief.

A candidate who exhibits behavior contradictory to normally expected behavior can be referred to the OCS Company Commander for further evaluation prior to a relief recommendation.

(7) Lack of motivation. Lack of motivation is characterized by a candidate's failure to exert reasonable effort to succeed, constant malingering, or a personal attitude, which demonstrates little or no desire to complete a course of action or mission.

(8) Falsifying or omitting facts or information. Knowingly falsifying or omitting facts concerning enrollment or commissioning requirements or documents.

(9) Misconduct. Misconduct includes but is not limited to:

a. Candidate / Candidate or Candidate / Cadre fraternization. OCS is a gender-integrated environment and is an intense 24-hour a day course of instruction. Candidate teamwork and loyalty is paramount in the development of leaders. A candidate's actions must be embedded in the Army's core values: loyalty, duty, respect, selfless service, honor, integrity and personal courage. Therefore, candidates do not engage in fraternization. Failure to follow these guidelines may result in relief from the course. Male and female candidates and cadre interact closely with one another and must exercise self-discipline and good judgment to prevent compromising situations. Male and female candidates are not authorized to engage in any real or perceived conduct with one another that is conduct unbecoming of an officer and contrary to accepted Army standards for values, ethics, and the current Code of Conduct. For detailed information on what constitutes fraternization see ARNG OCS TAC Guide or ARNG OCS OC Guide.

b. Unauthorized alcohol use.

c. Integrity issues.

d. Possession, use, sale, or transfer of any narcotic, hallucinogen, controlled substance or narcotics paraphernalia.

e. Conduct that would constitute a violation of applicable laws and / or military regulations and / or the Honor Code.

5-7. Candidate Resignations. Every effort must be made by the ARNG OCS cadre to counsel and advise an individual toward the successful completion of OCS. In cases where these efforts do not prevent an officer candidate from requesting resignation the following procedures are followed.

a. Responsibilities.

(1) Officer candidate. The officer candidate must submit their request for resignation from the ARNG OCS program in writing to the cadre chain of command.

(2) Cadre. The TAC counsels the candidate on a DA Form 4856E detailing the procedure for and the consequences of resignation. The TAC also submits written comments on the candidate's potential to the company commander, along with the candidate's written resignation and complete candidate record.

(3) Company commander. The company commander interviews the candidate and counsels the candidate on a DA Form 4856E on the consequences of his / her resignation. He/she may add his/her own comments to the TAC's written comments on the candidate's potential before forwarding the entire packet to the OCS/GS Battalion or Regimental Commander.

(4) OCS or GS battalion commander (approval authority). The battalion commander interviews the candidate, counsels the candidate on the consequences of his / her resignation, and accepts the candidate's resignation if the candidate is determined to resign from the ARNG OCS program. The final decision of the Battalion Commander is recorded on a DA Form 4856E Part IV initiated by the OCS Company Commander.

b. Final Disposition. After the battalion commander accepts the officer candidate's resignation, the candidate is removed from training. The TAC and the OCS company commander complete the end of course summary and place it in the candidate record.

c. Records. Records are maintained on file at the home state IAW TR 350-18 (Ch.3, Paragraph 28, subparagraph e) on all officer candidates who resign. These records include the completed end of course summary on the officer candidate.

d. Withdrawing a resignation. If the candidate elects to withdraw the resignation before it is forwarded to the OCS or GS battalion commander, the documents are retained in the candidate record with the DA Form 4856E Part IV completed by the Company Commander explaining the candidate's decision. A resignation in lieu of relief is processed as a relief.

5-8. Candidate Rights. The OCS company commander advises a candidate in writing (DA Form 4856E) that he/she is being recommended for removal, recycle, or relief and the reasons for this action. The OCS company commander also advises the candidate of his/her right to appeal. The following are the two types of involuntary separation and the procedures in which to appeal:

a. Involuntary Separation: The Officer Candidate has 24 hrs to appeal the decision of the Battalion Commander. The appeal will be made to the Commander, RTI. The appeal must be in writing and must elaborate why he feels the Battalion Commanders decision should be changed.

(1) A board of officers will review Officer Candidate appeals:

- a. A minimum of three Officers from different states, if available.
- b. Senior Officer from appealing candidate's state will be on the board, if available.
- c. The recommendation of the board will be forwarded to the Commander, RTI.

(2) Decision of the Commander, RTI is final.

b. Involuntary Separation (medical):

(1) Officer Candidate appeals to board of officers:

- a. A minimum of three Officers from different states, if available.
- b. Senior Officer from appealing candidate's state will be on the board, if available.
- c. OCS Physician/representative will sit on the board of Officers.

(2) Officer Candidate may appeal to the Commander, RTI.

c. Resign in lieu of relief. Candidates are counseled that resignation is an option but it voids any appellate rights and that it may not necessarily better their chances of returning to OCS. Candidates submitting a resignation while the chain of command is executing the process for relief are still processed as a relief.

Chapter 6

LEADERSHIP RATINGS AND REPORTS

6-1. General. Each individual has the capability to lead others. The primary function of this program is to develop and assess this capability so that the individual not only has the capability, but the ability to lead others. In accomplishing this, the personnel upon whom this responsibility has been placed use many tools; pressure, encouragement, explanation, reprimands, counseling, etc. The cadre and staff are here to develop leaders who can assume the responsibilities and duties of commissioned officers. The goal is that by the completion of the course of instruction, every Officer Candidate will possess the necessary qualities of leadership. Leadership development of the Officer Candidate is progressive throughout the course and is accomplished through practical application, constructive counseling and other appropriate instructional media.

a. This chapter provides the necessary guidance for employing the Leadership Assessment Program (LAP).

(1) The primary purpose of OCS is to develop and assess leadership. Therefore, the primary focus of evaluation must be directed to assessing candidate performance in this area. While total objectivity can never be obtained, the use of standardized forms and definitions will greatly enhance impartial leadership evaluation.

(2) The OCS Leadership Assessment Program is implemented in a physically and mentally demanding environment. Its foundation is in FM 22-100, chapters 2, 4 and 5. The candidate is evaluated on the Army Values, required actions, skills and attributes as defined and described in FM 22-100.

(3) The standard established in the LAP is the leadership performance expected of a Second Lieutenant. Candidates are evaluated on their ability to meet this established standard. Those who possess the actions, skills and attributes necessary to become successful leaders will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants.

(4) The leadership evaluation of candidates has two principal parts: evaluations performed by TACs and peer evaluations/ratings. The greatest weight is given to the TAC assessments. It is the TAC who is expected to know what is expected of a Second Lieutenant.

6-2. Evaluation Tools. Leadership evaluation at OCS measures performance not potential. OCS is structured to afford each candidate many opportunities to perform and demonstrate his/her capabilities. Performance is measured in a variety of ways. All of these methods provide OCS cadre with feedback regarding the strengths and weaknesses of a candidate.

a. Physical Fitness Assessments. The Army Physical Fitness Test (APFT), Leadership Reaction Course (LRC), Foot Marches, and the physical fitness program are conducted regularly by the candidates.

b. Writing assignments: essays, book reports, routine correspondence, Operation Orders, after action reports.

c. Oral Presentations: military briefings, candidate led instruction, and combat orders.

d. Formalized practical exercises and examinations: textbook assessments conducted during and at the end of blocks of instruction.

e. Chain of Command: candidates take on the various roles of leadership typically found in a company: commander, executive officer, first sergeant, platoon leader, platoon sergeant, squad leader, and team leader. While in these positions, candidates are expected to demonstrate the appropriate level of command presence and accomplish the duties and responsibilities of that role.

6-3. Leadership Forms. The OCS leadership assessment program uses four (4) forms. These are used to record observations and form the basics for counseling:

a. Leadership Observation Report (LOR) or SPOT Report.

b. Leadership Evaluation Report (LER).

c. Candidate In-Brief Form.

d. Candidate Self Assessment Report (Yellow Card). The SAR is a performance report submitted by the Officer Candidate. The SAR allows the Officer Candidate to assess his own performance strengths, weaknesses, and plans for improvement. Each Officer Candidate filling a rated position within the OC Company will bring a completed SAR with him to formal counseling. The SAR will be completed using the TER format. (See example.)

(3) Initiative. Initiative is the ability to act when there is no or little clear guidance. The leader who displays initiative is a self-starter and has the ability to see requirements that are not always spelled out. Clear understanding of the commander's intent allows a leader to exercise initiative to accomplish a mission.

a. Student Leadership Tour of Duty. The Senior TAC will establish and assign the student chain-of-command and ensure that each OC is rated a minimum of one time during the cycle.

b. Prior to each tour of duty a Candidate In-brief form will be completed.

c. Upon completion of each tour of duty in the student chain-of-command, the OC will:

(1) Complete a Candidate Self-Assessment Report. This will be turned into the TAC within the prescribed time. (Normally one SAR Card after each meal, during the candidate's tenure in their Student Leadership Tour of Duty.)

(2) Will receive a completed Leadership Evaluation Report (LER). This will occur in conjunction with a formal counseling.

(3) Thoroughly brief the incoming chain-of-command. This briefing will include all of the necessary information required for the new chain-of-command to carry on with the mission and conduct follow-on business.

d. Duties and Responsibilities. The chain-of-command determines how to efficiently use their time, manpower, and materials to accomplish assigned tasks. Rated positions within the Company chain-of-command are:

- (1) Candidate Company Commander (CO)
- (2) Candidate Executive Officer (XO)
- (3) Candidate First Sergeant (1SG)
- (4) Candidate Platoon Leader (PL)
- (5) Candidate Platoon Sergeant (PSG)
- (6) Candidate Squad Leader (SL)

6-10. Leadership Evaluations.

a. Leadership evaluation is conducted by:

- (1) TAC Officers
- (2) TAC NCOs

b. Leadership Evaluation Report (LER): The LER rates the OC on Army Values, actions, skills and attributes using a 1-5 rating scale. The TAC must rate as many areas as possible depending on their observations made during the tour of duty.

c. Leadership Observation Report (LOR): The LOR records a single action of the OC. The OC does not have to be in a leadership position to receive a LOR. It is used as an observation tool and not an assessment in and of itself; however, a series of LORs in an OC's file over time will reveal trends-positive or negative-in that OC's performance and abilities. LORs are taken into account when LERs are used to rate the Candidate Chain of Command.

d. DA Form 4856-E Counseling Statement: The DA Form 4856-E will be used to counsel an OC for outstanding positive or negative academic, leadership, or other actions. Also used for initial, mid-cycle and close out counseling. The DA 4856-E will be completed by a TAC officer or NCO.

e. Instructors: Instructors may utilize the Leadership Observation Report when they see remarkable examples of strong or weak leadership.

f. Officer Candidates:

(1). Candidate Self-Assessment Report: The candidate self-assessment report is completed by the OC during and following a tour of duty in a leadership position. This report provides information concerning the OC's perception of his performance.

(2) Candidates Plan for Improvement: The candidate will fill out his Plan for Improvement located on the back of the LER, after he/she has been counseled by the TAC Officer/NCO

(3) Peer Evaluations

a. A part of the OCS Program involves teaching the candidate how to assess leadership performance in his peers and subordinates. The peer rating process is used as a vehicle to these ends.

b. Cadre members are not able to evaluate many of the intrinsic dynamics of the squad. Peer evaluations disclose to the OCS Cadre the "silent" leadership characteristics of a class. It can also be useful to discover how each candidate perceives his own progress in the course in relation to his peers. The rated candidate is provided an opportunity to review comments made by his classmates.

c. The peer evaluations help the candidate focus on patterns of behavior he would not otherwise see. This process provides him with insight into how others perceive his leadership style and attitude.

d. Additionally, OCs must be prepared to objectively evaluate subordinates upon commissioning. Each OC will rank his fellow squad members numerically from first to last. The OC will also provide a brief but concise statement as to the leadership strengths and weaknesses that prompted him to place his fellow OCs in these positions. This statement must comment on performance in the leadership traits, which resulted in the rating.

7-3 Using the Chain of Command. The Chain of Command is a tool for command and communication. Messages flow both down and up. It is a dynamic system with only one concrete concept: It must follow the company rank structure. The following is an example of its use (8 Troop Leading Procedures):

a. The CO receives a task from higher up (training schedule, TAC Officer, etc.) (#1 Receive the Mission). The CO issues a warning order to the XO, PL's and the 1SG (#2 Issue a Warning Order). The warning order should contain Situation, Mission, a Tentative Plan, Special Equipment Requirements, Uniform, Time and Place of OPORD. While the CO prepares his OPORD (#3 Make a Tentative Plan), the PLs will issue a warning order to their PSGs and platoons. The XO will prepare to procure items necessary for the company to complete its mission (classrooms, training aids, arrange for food) (#4 Initiate Necessary Movement & #5 Reconnoiter). This will be accomplished through the S4 (supply and logistics). The 1SG will assist the XO by collecting requests from the PSGs. The PL will work with the PSG to ready the platoon for the mission. The PSG will coordinate and delegate tasks to the SLs to ready their squads for action (proper uniform and equipment, water...).

b. The CO will use all available information gathered from the XO and 1SG during the reconnaissance process for his Operation Order (#6 Complete the Plan). The XO, PLs and 1SG will meet the CO at the predetermined time and location to receive the OPORD. The CO will issue the OPORD (#7 Issue the Complete OPORD). The CO will then conduct rehearsals for the operation (#8 Supervise & Refine. This is critical to the success or failure of the mission.)

c. Once the OPORD is issued; the XO will make final requests and preparations. The PLs, using the CO OPORD, will write their platoon OPORDs. They will then issue their OPORDs to the PSGs and platoons. Final preparations and request will be made. The 1SG is responsible for having the company formed and accounted for at the appropriate time.

This is not the only way to use the Chain of Command. Being a dynamic system, it can be manipulated to fit any situation. Creativity with its use will be a measure of success as an OC leader.

7-4. The Five-Paragraph Operation Order. The OPORD is the CO's written plan for the mission. It contains 5 paragraphs. (Refer to FM 7-8 Chapter 2, pages 2-11 thru 2-21 for detailed information).

APPENDIX B

PREPARING THE OCS STUDENT AUTOBIOGRAPHY

B-1. SUBJECT AREA: Written Communication.

B-2. ASSIGNMENT: Write an OCS Student autobiography of 4-5 pages (1000 words max.)

B-3. ASSIGNMENT INFORMATION:

a. Substance: Generally speaking, a writer reflects upon and describes his/her life, or part of it, in an autobiography. For your first assignment as an OCS student, we ask that you write an OCS Student autobiography, focusing on that part of your life which has led you to consider becoming an Army Officer. Here are some suggestions for proceeding with this assignment:

(1) Present vital statistics: date, place of birth, places of residence, schools you have attended, family background, and prior military service or experiences.

(2) Describe special events in your life; relate circumstances and happenings that make you different, that help make you what you are, and that you expect your audience to find memorable.

(3) Tell what you expect to contribute to society through gaining an education and what you may contribute by completing OCS requirements and gaining a commission.

NOTE: One of your principle writing tasks is to develop a fluid, readable narrative of your life, so do not merely list responses to these suggested questions. Instead, weave your responses into a narrative story of your life and your expectations in life and how this relates to your goal of earning a commission in the military.

b. Format: Final paper will be typed or computer-printed on one side only. Number each page (except the first page-cover sheet) on the center bottom of the page. The cover sheet format is provided. Your autobiography will start on the second page and be numbered "1" in the numbering sequence of all the remaining pages.

c. Fasten a head and shoulders photo of yourself (3" x 5" or 4" x 6" photos or digital camera printouts on high-quality paper are acceptable) in uniform (BDUs/ACUs) to the bottom of the cover sheet. Use "Scotch Magic Tape" to fasten photo to cover sheet. Local policy/SOP may require your class to schedule a date for all of you to take photos together, or you may wish to get together with classmates and take each other's picture.

d. Evaluation: OCS Staff members will evaluate your autobiography. The OCS Selection Board of Officers will read and review your autobiography to formulate initial opinions about you. Your autobiography will be judged on four criteria: content, organization, readability, and presentation. Evaluators will consider the following questions as they make their evaluation:

(1) Substance. How much specific detail have you used? (Generally, the more detail the better) How appropriate is the detail? How well does the reader get to "know" you, solely on the bases of your autobiography?

(2) Organization. Does your paper develop smoothly? Does each part relate well with the rest of your paper? Do you relate your earlier life to your present situation in college? Do your expectations regarding the future emerge clearly from what you reveal of your past and present?

(3) Style. Have you used effective transitions? Have you written directly? Have you chosen familiar, unpretentious vocabulary? Have you avoided long, cumbersome sentences? On the other hand, have you also avoided an extended series of very simply structured sentences? Has your punctuation assisted rather than hindered or confused your reader? Overall, have you observed the conventions of standard written English?

(4) Correctness. Is your text carefully proofread, and free of typographical errors? Have used the proper format? Is your text neat, and free of smudges and wrinkles?
